

The Excellence.Gov Awards

Sponsored by the Industry Advisory Council, the Federal CIO Council and E-Gov

Mandatory: Federal E-Government Applications (No State or Local Applications)

1. Name of Project _____

2. Federal Government Agency _____

3. Government POC and contact info _____

4. Website address, if applicable _____

5. Name of nominator, affiliation, contact info _____

6. Summary of Problem: 25 words _____

7. Summary of Solution: 25 words _____

8. Application Type (check one)

- ☐ Government to Citizen (G2C)
- ☐ Government to Business (G2B)
- ☐ Government to Government (G2G)
- ☐ Internal to Organization Efficiency

9. Period of execution _____

The following narratives will be judged for award.

10. Who are the customer(s) you are serving?

11. What benefits have you achieved to date? (metrics are ideal, e.g., time/cost savings, customer satisfaction, staffing levels, increased productivity, unified multi-agency efforts)

12. How does your work touch other agencies? How did you involve them in the process?

13. Why is this project considered a Best Practice for your organization and the Federal Government?

Please e-mail your response to cbush@fgipc.org by Friday, December 15, 2002

Mark your calendars for February 11, 2003, Ceremony & Reception to be held during the E-Gov Conference. This is our third year of hosting the awards, which culminates at E-Gov's annual e-Procurement/Web-Enabled Government conference, February 10-12 at the Ronald Reagan Center in Washington, DC. Select organizations will be recognized as innovators in E-Government.

Winners selected by members of:

- The Federal CIO Council
- E-Gov
- The Industry Advisory Council

See www.iaconline.org for nomination and awards information.